

presents

Assessment Connections: 4-Part Workshop Series

Attend at least three workshops to receive an Assessment & Evaluation certificate from the Queen's University Assessment and Evaluation Group!

1 Thinking about Identity and Assessment

Join in-person
Room: A242 AB

Date: September 21, 2022 @ 12:50 PM – 1:30 PM EST

Purpose: Artist Nancy Douglas and Dr. Searle will lead an interactive session about identity using arts-informed learning and research approaches.

Presenters:

Nancy Douglas

Illustrator, Teaching Artist

Dr. Michelle Searle

Assistant Professor

Facilitators: Katrina Carbone & Sumaiya Chowdhury (PhD Students)

2 Thinking about Assessment and Evaluation in Research

Mark your calendars!

Date: November 30, 2022 @ 12:50 PM – 1:30 PM

Purpose: Presenters will showcase different aspects of classroom assessment and classroom assessment research. Join to hear three graduate students share their research related to assessment in K-12 education. Q&A will follow the session.

Presenters: Panel of graduate students and alumni in the Assessment and Evaluation Group.

Facilitators: Michael Holden (PhD Candidate), Katrina Carbone (PhD Student), Sumaiya Chowdhury (PhD Student)

3 Thinking about Assessment and Evaluation in Practice

Date: January 25, 2023 @ 12:50 PM – 1:30 PM EST

Purpose: Opportunity to unpack assessment challenges encountered while on practicum related to:

- Assessment for Learning (feedback, process, formative)
- Assessment of Learning (evaluation, product, summative)
- Assessment as Learning (metacognition, reflection, student agency)

Facilitators: Michael Holden, PhD Candidate

Katrina Carbone, PhD Student

Sumaiya Chowdhury, PhD Student

REGISTER NOW!

Click the title to register!
We can't wait to see you!

Part 1: Identity and Assessment

Part 2: Assessment and Research

Part 3: Assessment and Practice

Part 4: Assessment and Evaluation Interview Questions

4 Thinking about Assessment and Evaluation Interview Questions

Date: April 26, 2023 @ 12:50 PM – 1:30 PM EST

Purpose: This session will help prepare B.Ed. teacher candidates for interview questions related to classroom assessment.

Presenter:

Dr. Christopher DeLuca

Associate Dean & Professor

Facilitators: Sumaiya Chowdhury, PhD Student

Dr. Michelle Searle, Assistant Professor

Katrina Carbone, PhD Student