What is Kingston Literacy and Skills?

Our adult education centres offer literacy and numeracy programming for people from 19 years and up, looking to move on to further education, employment or enhanced independence. If you would like to assist our small group instructors and help develop learning materials, you will learn a lot about adult education and the socio-economic factors involved.

What role can you play?

We are especially interested in having short, engaging lessons developed for teachers to present on, about grammar/spelling topics, like subject/verb agreement, homophones, misplaced modifiers, and more.

Candidates for this position must be patient, flexible, open-minded and have strong reading and writing skills. Previous experience working with adults a definite asset.

How can you apply?

To apply for this Alternative Practicum Opportunity, please submit a cover letter stating why this position is of interest to you, and a recent resume to the Queen's Education Community Outreach Centre, at the e-mail address provided.
